RICHMOND DIVISION

1) Response to Omnibus Objection of Claim Number 7252 filed by claimant:

2) Claimant:
Robert J Appleby
14320 Winter Ridge Lane
Midlothian, VA 23113

Response to Omnibus objection for Claim Number 7252; Robert J Appleby

Mr Appleby and Circuit City Stores Inc signed and Employment Agreement on June 22nd, 2007. The terms of this agreement were one year, followed by successive 6 month periods renewing automatically. Mr. Appleby's contract was in force when the company entered into reorganization on November 10th, 2008. Mr Appleby filed a claim for the value of the contract according to the specific terms set forth in the agreement.

These claims are discrete from other claims filed, as they were a contractual obligation if there was a change in control of the company. Specified salary, bonus and perquisites are not duplicative of earned income had the company remained in business.

3) Explanation of claim: Claim No. 7252 represents the value the claimants in-force employment contract with Circuit City Stores Inc..

Re: Circuit City bankruptcy & all claims for Robert J Appleby

"This proof of claim shall include any and all claims arising out of or relating to any employment agreement or other contractual arrangement, compensation plan or program, benefit plan or program including, without limitation: the 1984 Circuit City Stores, Inc. Such claims shall include, without limitation, any rights of indemnification, reimbursement or contribution."

4) A Copy of claimants employment contract is attached. The contract provides for severance benefits if there is / was a change in control. Article 9 defines Change in Control. Sections B and D apply in this specific case. Article 9 section D defines a Change in Control: "the consummation of a plan of a complete liquidation, dissolution or sale of substantially all the assets of the company."

b) Article 9.3 details Severance Benefits due to the executive within (1) year following a Change in Control: "if at any time there is a Change in Control of the Company" for any reason other than death, Disability, Retirement, Voluntary termination or involuntary termination for cause, the company shall provide:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's name, and the bankruptcy case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is located at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the Bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Use this space to report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

4. Secured Claim.

Check the appropriate box and provide the requested information if the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) State the type and the value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state annual interest rate and the amount past due on the claim as of the date of the bankruptcy filing.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 507(a).

If any portion of your claim falls in one or more of the listed categories, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgement that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach to this proof of claim form redacted copies documenting the existence of the debt and of any lien securing the debt. You may also attach a summary. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

Date and Signature:

The person filing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. Attach a complete copy of any power of attorney. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. § 101(5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim form is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgement of Filing a Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or to view your filed proof of claim you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Circuit City Stores, Inc. Employment Agreement for Robert J. Appleby

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made, entered into, and is effective as of the 22nd day of JUNE, 2007 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Circuit City Stores, Inc. (the "Company") and Robert J. Appleby (the "Executive").

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ the Executive as Vice President, Marketing Operations of Circuit City Stores, Inc.;

WHEREAS, the Company recognizes the Executive's intimate knowledge and experience in the business of the Company, and desires to secure the employment of the Executive in the role of Vice President, Marketing Operations of the Company;

WHEREAS, the Executive will develop and/or come in contact with the Company's proprietary and confidential information which is not readily available to the public, and which is of great importance to the Company and is treated by the Company as secret and confidential information; and

WHEREAS, upon execution of this Agreement, any prior employment agreement by and between the Executive and the Company, whether oral or written, will have no force and effect with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment and will be fully replaced and superseded by the terms of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the Executive's continued employment and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties set forth in this Agreement, and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

Article 1. Term of Employment

The Company hereby agrees to employ the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment as Vice President, Marketing Operations of the Company, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, for an initial period of one (1) year, commencing as of the Effective Date of this Agreement as indicated above (the "Initial Term"); subject, however, to earlier termination as expressly provided herein.

The Initial Term shall automatically be renewed for additional periods of six (6) months each at the end of the Initial Term, and then again after each successive six (6) months thereafter (collectively, the "Renewal Periods," which, together with the Initial Term, constitute the "Term" of this Agreement). However, either party may terminate this Agreement at the end of the Initial Term, or at the end of any Renewal Period, by giving the other party written notice of intent not to renew, delivered at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the Initial Term or any Renewal Period.

Article 2. Position and Responsibilities

During the Term of this Agreement, the Executive agrees to serve as Vice President, Marketing Operations of the Company. In his capacity as Vice President, Marketing Operations, the Executive shall report directly to the Chief Marketing Officer, and shall have the duties and responsibilities of Vice President, Marketing Operations of the Company and such other duties and responsibilities not inconsistent with the performance of his duties as Vice President, Marketing Operations of the Company.

Article 3. Standard of Care

During the term of this Agreement, the Executive agrees to devote substantially his full-time attention and energies to the Company's business. The Executive covenants, warrants, and represents that he shall:

- (a) Devote his full and best efforts and talents full time to the performance of his employment obligations and duties for the Company;
- (b) Exercise the highest degree of loyalty and the highest standards of conduct in the performance of his duties;
- (c) Comply with all rules, regulations, and policies established or issued by the Company; and
- (d) Refrain from taking advantage, for himself or others, of any corporate opportunities of the Company.

Article 4. Other Employment

The Executive shall not, during the term hereof, be interested directly or indirectly, in any manner, as partner, officer, director, investor, stockholder, advisor, employee, or in any other capacity, in any other business similar to Company's business for the Executive's personal advantage or benefit or that of others. Any other employment or position which might reasonably be deemed contrary to the best interests of the Company is prohibited. During the term of employment hereunder, the Executive agrees to obtain the Company's written consent prior to entering into any other occupation, even if dissimilar to that of the Company. Such consent may be granted or withheld, in the Company's absolute discretion. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent or limit the right of the Executive to invest in the capital stock or other securities of any corporation whose stock or securities are regularly traded on any public exchange, nor shall anything herein contained be deemed to prevent the Executive from investing in real estate for his own benefit (so long as such investment (a) is not related to or in support of any entity engaged in a business similar to that of the Company or (b) does not detract from the Executive's performance of his duties and obligations hereunder).

Article 5. Compensation and Benefits

As remuneration for all services to be rendered by the Executive during his employment, and as consideration for complying with the covenants herein, the Company shall pay and provide to the Executive the following:

5.1. Base Salary. During the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall pay the Executive a Base Salary in an amount which shall be established and approved by the Compensation and Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that such Base Salary shall be established at a rate of not less than 195,867.00 gross per year. In addition, the Company shall not be obligated to maintain, increase, or refrain from reducing or amending such Base Salary so long as such changes are similarly applicable to comparably situated employees. This Base Salary shall be subject to all appropriate federal and state withholding taxes and payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company. The Base Salary shall be reviewed at least annually following the Effective Date of this Agreement, while the Term of this Agreement is in force, to ascertain whether, in the judgment of the Compensation and Personnel Committee, such Base Salary should be changed. If changed, the Base Salary as stated above shall, likewise, be changed for all purposes of this Agreement.

5.2 Annual Bonus. In addition to his Base Salary, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in the Company's short-term incentive program, as such program may exist from time to time during the Term of this Agreement.

Under the Company's short-term incentive plan, the Executive has the opportunity to earn an annual bonus with respect to any fiscal year of the Company ("Annual Bonus"). The Annual Bonus, if earned, with respect to any fiscal year, will generally be in an amount that is not less than Forty Percent (40%) of the Executive's Base Salary for the fiscal year with respect to which the Annual Bonus is being paid (the "Minimum Bonus Rate").

The award and amount of any Annual Bonus shall be determined under the Company's short-term incentive plan, at the sole discretion of the Company's Compensation and Personnel Committee. If the Minimum Bonus Rate is changed, it shall, likewise, be changed for all purposes of this Agreement.

5.3. Long-Term Incentives. During the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Company's long-term incentive plan, to the extent that the Board of Directors of the Company or the Compensation and Personnel Committee, in their discretion, determines is appropriate.

5.4. Retirement Benefits. During the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall provide to the Executive the opportunity for participation in all Company retirement, insurance, fringe benefits, and executive compensation plans and programs, subject to the eligibility and participation requirements of such plans.

5.5. Employee Benefits. During the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall provide the Executive all benefits, subject to the eligibility requirements and other provisions of such arrangements. Such benefits may include group term life insurance, comprehensive health and major medical insurance, dental and life insurance, and short-term and long-term disability.

5.6. Perquisites. During the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall provide to the Executive, at the Company's cost, all perquisites, to the extent that the Board of Directors of the Company or the Compensation and Personnel Committee, in their discretion, determines is appropriate.

5.7. Right to Change Plans. By reasons of Articles 5.5 and 5.6 herein, the Company shall not be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing any benefit plan or perquisite.

Article 6. Expenses

During the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for all ordinary and necessary expenses, in a reasonable amount, which the Executive incurs in performing his duties under this Agreement including, but not limited to, travel, entertainment, professional dues and subscriptions, and all dues, fees, and expenses associated with membership in various professional, business, and civic associations and societies in which the Company finds that the Executive's participation is in the best interests of the Company. The payment of reimbursement of expenses shall be subject to such rules concerning documentation of expenses and the type or magnitude of such expenses as the Compensation and Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors may establish from time to time.

Article 7. Employment Termination

7.1. Termination Due to Retirement or Death. In the event the Executive's employment ends by reason of Retirement or the Executive's death during the term of this Agreement, the Executive's benefits shall be determined in accordance with the Company's retirement, survivor's benefits, insurance, and/or other applicable programs of the Company then in effect. In addition, in the case of the Executive's death, all stock grants will become immediately vested and may be exercised by the Executive's personal representatives, distributees, legatees, or estate at any time before the expiration date of the grant.

The Effective Date of Termination due to Retirement or death shall be (a) ninety (90) days following the date the Executive provides the Company with written notice that the Executive is ending employment by reason of Retirement or (b) on the Executive's date of death, as the case may be. Upon the Effective Date of Termination, the Company shall be obligated to pay the Executive or, if applicable, the Executive's estate: (a) any Base Salary or Annual Bonus that was accrued but not yet paid as of the Effective Date of Termination; and (b) all other rights and benefits that the Executive is vested in, pursuant to other plans and programs of the Company.

7.2. Termination Due to Disability. The Company shall have the right to terminate the Executive's employment for disability. For the purposes of this Agreement, disability shall mean any physical or mental illness or injury that causes the Executive to be unable to substantially perform the Executive's normal duties; provided however that the Executive shall not be considered disabled until: (i) the Executive has been so disabled for 180 days during any period of twelve (12) consecutive months; (ii) the Executive's attending physician shall have furnished to the Company certification that the return of the Executive to his normal duties is impossible or improbable; or (iii) the Executive is determined to be totally disabled by the disability insurer then insuring the Executive, if any.

The Effective Date of Termination due to Disability shall be specified, in a written notice, by the Executive's immediate manager, and such written notice shall be delivered to the Executive, but shall be no less than thirty (30) calendar days after the delivery of such written notice to the Executive. Upon the Effective Date of Termination, the Company shall be obligated to pay the Executive (or, if applicable, the Executive's estate): (a) any salary that was accrued but not yet paid as of the Effective Date of Termination; (b) the unpaid Annual Bonus, if any, with respect to the fiscal year preceding the Effective Date of Termination (such Annual Bonus, if any, to be determined in the manner it would have been determined and payable at the time it would have been payable under Article 5.2 had there been no termination of the Employment Period); and (c) all other rights and benefits that the Executive is vested in, pursuant to other plans and programs of the Company.

It is expressly understood that the Disability of the Executive for a period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days or less in the aggregate during any period of twelve (12) consecutive months, in the absence of any reasonable expectation that his Disability will exist for more than such a period of time, shall not constitute a failure by him to perform his duties hereunder and shall not be deemed a breach or default, and the Executive shall receive full compensation for any such period of Disability or for any other temporary illness or incapacity during the term of this Agreement.

If the employment of the Executive terminates because of Disability, all of the Executive's outstanding stock grants, excluding restricted stock grants issued under a performance based plan, will become immediately vested, effective as of the date of the Executive's Disability. Then, the Executive, the Executive's personal representatives, distributees, or legatees may exercise the Executive's grants at any time before the expiration date of the grant.

7.3. Voluntary Termination by the Executive. The Executive may terminate his employment and this Agreement at any time by giving the Company at least thirty (30) days written notice. The Company reserves the right to require the Executive not to work during the notice period but shall pay the Executive his full Base Salary, at the rate then in effect as provided in Article 5.1 herein, through the notice period plus all other benefits to which the Executive has a vested right on the last day of employment (for purposes of this paragraph, the Executive shall not be paid any Annual Bonus with respect to the fiscal year in which voluntary termination under this Article 7.3 occurs). The Company thereafter shall have no further obligations under this Agreement.

7.4. Involuntary Termination by the Company Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment, at any time, for any reason other than death, Disability, Retirement, or for "Cause", by providing the Executive with at least thirty (30) days written notice; provided, however, that for purposes of this Article 7.4 (a), no variation, alteration, modification, cancellation, change or amendment made to this Agreement pursuant to Article 12.3 or 12.4 shall be deemed an involuntary termination without Cause.

- (a) Upon the Effective Date of Termination specified by the Company for termination by the Company without cause, the Company shall pay to the Executive, an amount equal to six (6) months of the Executive's Base Salary and a pro rata share of the Executive's target Annual Bonus established for the fiscal year in which the Executive's Effective Date of Termination occurs according the Company's regularly scheduled payroll practices. If, however, the Company determines that such payments are subject to Treasury Regulation Service 1.409A-3(g)(2), payment shall begin on the first day of the month following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's Effective Date of Termination, and such payment shall be made in full by or within thirty (30) days thereafter.

- (b) In addition, the Company shall continue, at the same cost to the Executive as existed as of the Effective Date of Termination, all health and welfare benefit plan participation, as permitted by law, for six (6) months following the Executive's termination of employment; provided, however, that the applicable COBRA "period of coverage" under any plan subject to Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or Sections 601 through 609 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) shall begin as of the Effective Date of Termination.
- (c) The Company shall also provide the Executive with three (3) months of outplacement services.
- (d) Any unvested stock options or any outstanding restricted stock, excluding performance-based restricted stock grants, as of the Effective Date of Termination, that would become vested (that is, exercisable in the case of stock options or transferable and non-forfeitable in the case of restricted stock) if the Executive remained an employee through the Initial Term or the then current Renewal Period of this Agreement will become vested as of the date of the Effective Date of Termination. The Executive must satisfy the tax withholding requirements.

The Company thereafter shall have no further obligations under this Agreement.

7.5. Termination For Cause. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent the Company from terminating the Executive's employment under this Agreement, without notice or liability for doing so, for "Cause."

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means:

- (a) The Executive's material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within ten (10) days of receipt by the Executive of written notice from the Company specifying the breach;
- (b) The Executive's gross negligence in the performance of his material duties hereunder, intentional nonperformance or intentional misperformance of such duties, misconduct or refusal to abide by or comply with the directives of the Board, his superior officers, or the Company's policies and procedures, which actions continue for a period of ten (10) days after receipt by the Executive of written notice of the need to cure or cease;
- (c) Conviction of a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude;
- (d) The Executive engaging in illegal conduct, dishonesty or fraud with respect to the business or affairs of the Company that in the reasonable judgment of the Company materially and adversely affects the operations or reputation of the Company;

- (e) Failure of the Executive to disclose to the Executive's manager a conflict of interest, of which the Executive knew or, with reasonable diligence, would have known, in connection with any transaction entered into on behalf of the Company;
- (f) Failure of the Executive to agree to a modification of this Agreement, pursuant to paragraph 12.3 below, when the purpose of the modification is to comply with applicable federal, state and/or local laws or regulations, or when such modification is designed to further define the restrictions of Article 8 or otherwise enhance the enforcement of Article 8 without increasing the scope of the Article 8 restrictions; or
- (g) The Executive engages in any act or omission which the Company believes could injure or bring discredit upon the reputation and/or goodwill of the Company and/or its respective officers, directors or shareholders.

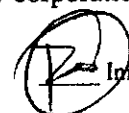

In the event this Agreement is terminated for Cause, the Company shall pay the Executive his Base Salary through the Effective Date of Termination for cause and the Executive shall immediately thereafter forfeit all rights and benefits (other than vested benefits) he would otherwise have been entitled to receive under this Agreement. The Company thereafter shall have no further obligations under this Agreement.

Article 8. Noncompetition and Confidentiality

8.1. Noncompetition.

- (a) During the Executive's employment and for a period of one (1) year following the last day of the Executive's employment, the Executive shall not directly or indirectly compete with the Company by engaging, in a competitive capacity, in any business that is engaged in the same or similar business of the Company, specifically including, but not limited to, Best Buy Co., Inc.; Dell, Inc; eBay; Wal-Mart Stores; Amazon.com, and any of the related or affiliated entities for each of the above companies. A business will not be considered to be in competition with the Company for purposes of this paragraph 8.1(a) or paragraph 8.1(b) below if:
 - (i) The business or the operating unit of the business in which the Executive is employed or with which the Executive is associated (collectively the "Business Unit") is not engaged in the retail sales of consumer electronics;
 - (ii) If sales of the Business Unit's products or services in the retail sales and service of consumer electronics constitute less than ten percent (10%) of such Business Unit's sales; or
 - (iii) If the sales of the Business Unit in the retail sales and service of consumer electronics do constitute more than ten percent (10%) of the sales of the Business Unit, but the Business Unit solely operates outside of North America.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent or limit the right of the Executive to invest in the capital stock or other securities of any corporation whose stock or securities are regularly traded on any public exchange, nor shall anything herein contained be deemed to prevent Employee from investing in real estate for his own benefit (as long as such investment is not related to or in support of any entity engaged in the same or similar business as the Company in competition with the Company in one or more Metropolitan Statistical Areas ("MSAs") in which the Company is doing business during the Executive's employment).

- (b) During the Executive's employment and for a period of one (1) year following the last day of the Executive's employment, the Executive shall not directly or indirectly compete with the Company by engaging, in a competitive capacity, in any business engaged in the same or similar business of the Company in one or more MSAs where, on the last day of the Executive's employment, the Company is engaged in real estate site selection or has taken further steps toward the commencement of operations in the future, of which the Executive is aware.
- (c) The Executive agrees that competition, as set forth in Article 8.1(a) above, shall include, but not be limited to, engaging in competitive activity, as an individual, as a partner, as a joint venturer with any other person or entity, or as an employee, agent, or representative of any other person or entity.
- (d) It is the specific intent of the parties that the Executive shall be restricted from competing directly or indirectly with any segment of the Company's business in which the Executive engaged prior to the last day of his employment and from any segment of the Company's business about which the Executive acquired proprietary or confidential information during the course of his employment.
- (e) If any provision of this Article 8.1 relating to the time period, geographic area or scope of restricted activities shall be declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to exceed the maximum time period, geographic area or scope of activities, as applicable, that such court deems reasonable and enforceable, said time period, geographic area or scope of activities shall be deemed to be, and thereafter shall become, the maximum time period, scope of activities or largest geographic area that such court deems reasonable and enforceable and this Agreement shall automatically be considered to have been amended and revised to reflect such determination.
- (f) The Executive and the Company have examined in detail this Covenant Not to Compete and agree that the restraint imposed upon the Executive is reasonable in light of the legitimate interests of the Company, and it is not unduly harsh upon the Executive's ability to earn a livelihood.

8.2. Non-Solicitation of Employees. The Executive agrees that during the Executive's employment with the Company and for a period of one (1) year following the last day of the Executive's employment, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or induce, or attempt to solicit or induce, any employee of the Company to leave the Company for any reason whatsoever or hire any individual employed by the Company. For purposes of this Article 8.2, employee shall mean any individual employed by the Company on the last day of the Executive's employment or within the three-month period prior to the last day of the Executive's employment.

Article 9. Change in Control

9.1. Change in Control. This Article 9 shall not become effective, and the Company shall have no obligation hereunder, if the employment of the Executive with the Company shall terminate prior to a Change in Control (as defined in Article 9.2 below) of the Company.

9.2. Definition of Change in Control. Change in Control of the Company means, and shall be deemed to have occurred, upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The acquisition by any individual, entity, or group (a "Person"), including a "person" within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), but excluding an Affiliate (as defined below) of the Company, of beneficial ownership within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of either: (i) the then outstanding shares of common stock of Circuit City (the "Outstanding Common Stock"); or (ii) the combined voting power of the then outstanding securities of the Company entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding Voting Securities"); excluding, however, the following: (A) any acquisition directly from the Company (excluding an acquisition resulting from the exercise of an option, conversion right, or exchange privilege unless the security being so exercised, converted or exchanged was acquired directly from the Company); (B) any acquisition by the Company; (C) any acquisition by an employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company; or (D) any acquisition by any corporation pursuant to a transaction which complies with clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) of subsection (c) of this Article 9.2;
- (b) Individuals who, as of the Effective Date, constitute the Board of Directors (the "Incumbent Board") cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of such Board; provided that any individual who becomes a director of the Company subsequent to the Effective Date, whose election, or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders, was approved by the vote of at least a majority of the directors then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board; and provided further, that any individual who was initially elected as a director of the Company as a result of an actual or threatened election contest, as such terms are used in Rule 14a-11 of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act, or any other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of any Person other than the Board shall not be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board;
- (c) The consummation of a reorganization, merger or consolidation of the Company or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (a "Corporate Transaction"); excluding, however, a Corporate Transaction pursuant to which: (i) all or substantially all of the individuals or entities who are the beneficial owners, respectively, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, more than sixty percent (60%) of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock, and the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction (including, without limitation, a corporation, which as a result of such transaction owns the Company or all or substantially all of the Company's assets either directly or indirectly) in substantially the same proportions relative to each other as their ownership, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be; (ii) no Person (other than: the Company; any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company; the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction; and any Person which beneficially owned, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, directly or indirectly, twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the Outstanding Common Stock or the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be) will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, twenty-five percent (25%) or more of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction or the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; and (iii) individuals who were members of the Incumbent Board will constitute at least a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction; or

- (d) The consummation of a plan of complete liquidation, dissolution, or sale of substantially all the assets of the Company.

For purposes of this Article 9, "Affiliate" shall mean with reference to a specified Person, any Person that directly or indirectly through one (1) or more intermediaries controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the specified Person. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meaning, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used in respect to any Person, shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of management and policies of such Person, whether through ownership of voting securities or by contract or otherwise.

9.3. Change-in-Control Severance Benefits. If at any time during the Term of this Agreement there is a Change in Control of the Company and the Executive's employment is terminated for any reason other than death, Disability, Retirement, Voluntary Termination, or Involuntary Termination for Cause within the one (1) year period following the Change in Control, the Company shall provide to the Executive the following:

- (a) Base Salary and all other benefits due him as if he had remained an employee pursuant to Article 5 through the remainder of the month in which the termination occurs, less applicable withholding taxes and other authorized payroll deductions;
- (b) A lump-sum severance allowance in an amount that is equal to the product of one (1) times both the Executive's Base Salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the termination and the Executive's target Annual Bonus established for the fiscal year in which the Executive's termination of employment occurs;

- (c) Continuation at the same cost to the Executive as existed as of the Effective Date of Termination of Agreement of all health, welfare, and benefit plan participation for one (1) full year following employment termination;
- (d) Provision of outplacement services for the Executive for three (3) months;
- (e) A lump-sum payment equal to the one (1) year cost of perquisites outlined in Article 5.6 above; and
- (f) Any unvested stock options or any outstanding restricted stock, excluding performance based restricted stock grants, as of the Effective Date of Termination, that would become vested (that is, exercisable in the case of stock options or transferable and non-forfeitable in the case of restricted stock) if the Executive remained an employee through the Initial Term or the then current Renewal Period of this Agreement will become vested as of the date of the Effective Date of Termination. The Executive must satisfy the tax withholding requirements.

9.4. Excise Tax Equalization Payment. In the event that the Executive becomes entitled to severance benefits under this Agreement or any other agreement with or plan of the Company (in the aggregate, the "Total Payments"), if any of the Total Payments will be subject to the tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or any similar excise tax that may hereafter be imposed), the Company shall pay to the Executive in cash an additional amount (the "Gross-Up Payment"), such that the net amount retained by the Executive after deduction of any Excise Tax upon the Total Payments and any federal, state, and local income tax and Excise Tax upon the Gross-Up Payment provided for by this Article 9.4 (including FICA and FUTA), shall be equal to the Total Payments. The Company shall make such payment to the Executive as soon as practicable following the Effective Date of Termination, but in no event beyond thirty (30) days from such date.

For purposes of determining the amount of the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive shall be deemed to pay federal income taxes at the highest marginal rate of federal income taxation in the calendar year in which the Gross-Up Payment is to be made, and state and local income taxes at the highest marginal rate of taxation in the state and locality of the Executive's residence on the Effective Date of Termination, net of the maximum reduction in federal income taxes which could be obtained from deduction of such state and local taxes.

The Company's Compensation and Personnel Committee shall determine, based upon the advice of the Company's independent certified public accountants, whether any payments or benefits hereunder are subject to the Excise Tax.

9.5. Subsequent Recalculation. In the event the Internal Revenue Service adjusts the computation of the Company under Article 9.4 herein so that the Executive did not receive the greatest net benefit, the Company shall reimburse the Executive for the full amount necessary to make the Executive whole, plus a market rate of interest, as determined by the Compensation and Personnel Committee.

Article 10. Assignment

10.1. Assignment by Company. This Agreement may and shall be assigned or transferred to, and shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of, any successor of the Company, and any such successor shall be deemed substituted for all purposes of the "Company" under the terms of this Agreement. As used in this Agreement, the term "successor" shall mean any person, firm, corporation, or business entity which, at any time, whether by merger, purchase, or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets or the business of the Company. In addition, the obligations of the Executive under Articles 8 and 12 of this Agreement shall continue after the termination of the Executive's employment and shall be binding on the Executive's heirs, executors, legal representatives and assigns.

Failure of the Company to obtain the agreement of any successor to be bound by the terms of this Agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession shall be a breach of this Agreement, and shall immediately entitle the Executive to compensation from the Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled in the event of an Involuntary Termination of Employment Without Cause as provided by Article 7.4. Except as provided herein, the Company may not otherwise assign this Agreement.

10.2. Assignment by Executive. The services to be provided by the Executive to the Company hereunder are personal to the Executive, and the Executive's duties may not be assigned by the Executive; provided, however, that this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, and administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees, and legatees. If the Executive dies while any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder remain outstanding, all such amounts, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement to the Executive's devisee, legatee, or other designee or, in the absence of such designee, to the Executive's estate.

Article 11. Dispute Resolution and Notice

11.1. Issue Resolution. Except for actions initiated by the Company to enjoin a breach by, and/or recover damages from the Executive related to violation of any of the restrictive covenants in Article 8 of this Agreement, which Company may bring in an appropriate court of law or equity, any disagreement between the Executive and the Company concerning anything covered by this Agreement or concerning other terms or conditions of the Executive's employment or the termination of the Executive's employment will be settled by final and binding arbitration pursuant to the Company's Associate Issue Resolution Program. The Dispute Resolution Agreement and the Dispute Resolution Rules and Procedures are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full in this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on both the Executive and the Company and may be enforced in a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

11.2. Notice. Any notices, requests, demands, or other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be sufficient if in writing, and if sent by registered or certified mail to the Executive at the last address he has filed in writing with the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal offices.

Article 12. Miscellaneous

12.1. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes any prior agreements or understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto, with respect to the subject matter hereof, and constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, this Agreement completely supersedes any and all prior employment agreements entered into by and between the Company, and the Executive, and all amendments thereto, in their entirety.

12.2. Return of Materials. Upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, however such termination is effected, the Executive shall promptly deliver to Company all property, records, materials, documents, and copies of documents concerning the Executive's business and/or its customers (hereinafter collectively "Company Materials") which the Executive has in his possession or under his control at the time of termination of his employment. The Executive further agrees not to take or extract any portion of Company Materials in written, computer, electronic or any other reproducible form without the prior written consent of the Executive's immediate manager.

12.3. Modification. This Agreement shall not be varied, altered, modified, canceled, changed, or in any way amended except by mutual agreement of the parties in a written instrument executed by the parties hereto or their legal representatives. It is the intention of the parties that this Agreement may be modified to ensure that this Agreement is in compliance with all federal laws and regulations, including but not limited to, Internal Revenue Code Section 409A and regulations thereunder.

12.4. Severability. It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of the restrictive covenants herein shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permissible under the applicable law. If any clause or provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term hereof, then the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby, and in lieu of each clause or provision of this Agreement which is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there shall be added, as a part of this Agreement, a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and as may be legal, valid, and enforceable.

12.5. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one (1) or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

12.6. Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all federal, state, city, or other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

12.7. Restrictive Covenants of the Essence. The restrictive covenants of the Executive set forth herein are of the essence of this Agreement; they shall be construed as independent of any other provision in this Agreement; and the existence of any claim or cause of action of the Executive against the Company, whether predicated on this Agreement or not, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of the restrictive covenants contained herein. The Company shall at all times maintain the right to seek enforcement of these provisions whether or not the Company has previously refrained from seeking enforcement of any such provision as to the Executive or any other individual who has signed an agreement with similar provisions.

12.8. Beneficiaries. The Executive may designate one (1) or more persons or entities as the primary and/or contingent beneficiaries of any amounts to be received under this Agreement. Such designation must be in the form of a signed writing acceptable to the Executive's immediate manager. The Executive may make or change such designation at any time.

12.9. Payment Obligation Absolute. The Company's obligation to make the payments and the arrangement provided for herein shall be absolute and unconditional, and shall not be affected by any circumstances, including, without limitation, any offset, counterclaim, recoupment, defense, or other right which the Company may have against the Executive or anyone else. All amounts payable by the Company hereunder shall be paid without notice or demand. Each and every payment made hereunder by the Company shall be final, and the Company shall not seek to recover all or any part of such payment from the Executive or from whomsoever may be entitled thereto, for any reasons whatsoever.

The Executive shall not be obligated to seek other employment in mitigation of the amounts payable or arrangements made under any provision of this Agreement, and the obtaining of any such other employment shall in no event effect any reduction of the Company's obligations to make the payments and arrangements required to be made under this Agreement; provided, however, that continued health, welfare, and benefit plan participation pursuant to Article 7.4 or Article 9.3 herein shall be discontinued in the event the Executive becomes eligible to receive substantially similar benefits from a successor employer.

12.10. Contractual Rights to Benefits. This Agreement establishes and vests in the Executive a contractual right to the benefits to which he is entitled hereunder. However, nothing herein contained shall require or be deemed to require, or prohibit or be deemed to prohibit, the Company to segregate, earmark, or otherwise set aside any funds or other assets, in trust or otherwise, to provide for any payments to be made or required hereunder.

Article 13. Governing Law

To the extent not preempted by federal law, the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without reference to Virginia's choice of law statutes or decisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Executive and the Company have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.
